

Room One News

Wow a bit of a shock-I have been just asked for my newsletter and had forgotten that it was Room Ones news week. So what does one write at short notice? Well today was a bit of a shock in more ways than one -especially if you saw us all walking downtown as we celebrated Wacky Hair Day by looking crazy. However it was great that we were able to contribute to the Westpac Trust as well. We have been busy trying out our new pedometers as we start our daily walks to get fitter and to walk the length of NZ as part of our Walk-A-Thon. We have been busy writing fabulous poems for our Mums for Mothers Day and creating beautiful tile gifts-(hope you enjoyed them Mums!!) This week has seen us creating Duffy Poems for Duffy's 15th Birthday and also thinking about inference in our reading and daily activities. Tonight a group of Room 1 students are having a sleepover as we support each other for this years Famine. The actual famine is next week but at that time we will be in camp with Room 2. We are all looking forward to that!!

A Poem For Mum

You're like a flower from the garden of love

You're sweeter than honey like an angel above

But wait- no you're better than that You're sweeter than sugar and that's that.

*I love you Mum and you know that.
You're the best of the best and really that's that.*

*It's all really simple there's no catch.
It all ends up like the rest,
You're my best.*

Tarn

Tiles and Wacky Hair Day pictures

